Architecture for Humanity-Dhaka, Bangladesh society is a network of Young professional architects and designers united by our desire to use our skills for the common good. We connect communities in need to development resources and professional design services and work side-by-side to overcome systemic problems and achieve sustainable prosperity. Help us use the power of design to improve lives.

Get Involved – Your Organization Can Make a Difference

You know that design matters. Help us prove it. Give designers in your firm the opportunity to apply their design skills to achieve immense social impact.

- o Generate excitement and commitment to drive retention and recruitment
- o Demonstrate the importance of innovation and research to clients.
- o Expose designers to new projects types and markets that expand skills.
- o Enable your team to share work, gain recognition, and benefit others through the worldwide architecture for humanity network.

End Of Year Giving & Employee Matching

Support projects that bring sustainable prosperity to communities throughout the world. Over 85% of donations are directed toward design and construction of innovative solutions. By giving to Architecture for Humanity-Dhaka, Bangladesh society as part of an end of the year giving campaign your firm can help us continue to bring design services to those in need. Get your employees involved by pledging to match their donations.

Sponsor A Designer

Whether building low cost energy efficient Tea stall for Street vendors or constructing a 1.5'x30' house in Urban Grey spaces for a tea stall owners that uses solar power and rainwater collection to support the local economy, or doing a workshop with local builders to share our engineering knowledge, our dedicated co-ordinator and volunteers collaborate with communities to develop thoughtful, innovative design solutions to address urgent needs. Sponsoring a designer enables the realization of projects around the world from rough sketches to construction.

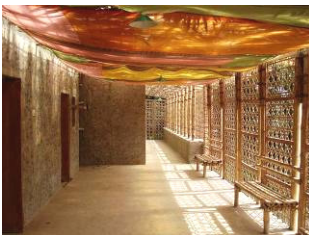

Donate on Behalf of Your Clients or Employees

Demonstrate your shared commitment to social responsibility and humanitarian design development. A holiday tribute to your valued clients and hard-working employees takes on added meaning when it includes a gift to Architecture for Humanity-Dhaka, Bangladesh society in their names.

Sponsor our Research initiative

The Research initiative by the young graduate is the first platform to offer development for any developing country. One billion people live in abject poverty. Four billion live in fragile but growing economies. One in seven people live in slum settlements. By 2020 it will be one in three. These are our clients and to maximize solving efficiency we need research, Innovation and technological development.
